Habit is the rut that man gets into in his career of life. It is well enough if the habit be a good one, for then it will likely produce good results, but, on the other hand, if the habit be a bad one much harm will be done. One habit that many merchants get into, and a good habit it is, is that of judiciously advertising their business. They lay out their plans for advertising carefully, and then follow them conscientiously, the result is invariably a flourishing business. If you want to lay out a good, and at the same time, economical advertising campaign, try Tee-Dee Want Ads. They are far-reaching in their results.
